

Tips for the Top

How to Dress

BY LYLA
GRANDSTAFF

WE'VE ALL HEARD the expression “You never get a second chance to make a first impression.” One element of a first impression is the way you dress in the workplace, which can have a significant impact on how you are perceived at work. If you want to take the fast track to the top, looking the part is as important as acting the part.

According to a survey done by CareerBuilder, the nation's largest online employment Web site, 41 percent of employers are more likely to promote employees who dress appropriately for their position. The following tips can help you project a professional image in the workplace.