The Gabriel Project of West Virginia is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that provides assistance to needy pregnant women and families with children two years of age and younger. The Project currently operates around the state, with three chapter offices serving 27 counties.

The Project is currently seeking a highly motivated Communications & Marketing intern for Summer 2016. The person selected will spend a minimum of eight weeks during the summer working closely with our State Office located in Charleston, WV. Interns will work approx. 15 hours per week and be responsible for:

- Assisting Executive Director in planning and organizing fundraising events
- Enhancing social media campaigns and presence
- Developing new paths and opportunities for donors
- Creating effective marketing strategies

This internship is a great educational opportunity for a student looking for hands-on fundraising and marketing experience. Interns will have the opportunity to network with local leaders, as well as work on community-wide projects. In addition, the internship provides an opportunity to learn about daily management of non-profit organizations.

Eligibility

Eligible students must be:

A rising sophomore, junior, or senior currently enrolled at university and majoring preferably in one of the following fields:

- Business
- Marketing
- Communications
- Non-Profit Leadership/Management

Qualifications

- Proficiency in Microsoft Office
- Competency with Major Social Media Sites
- Strong Interpersonal Skills and Ability to Work Well with Others
- Dedicated interest in non-profit or social services work

Compensation

While the intern will be considered a volunteer, interns will receive a stipend based upon weeks worked to cover expenses (travel, food, etc.).

Internship Application

Interested applicants should send their resume with at least one reference to Katie Pack at kpack@gabrielwv.org.

For more information about the organization, please visit www.gabrielwv.org. For questions regarding this program, please e-mail Katie at the address listed above.
The Gabriel Project of West Virginia is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that provides assistance to needy pregnant women and families with children two years of age and younger. The Project currently operates around the state, with three chapter offices serving 27 counties.

The Project is currently seeking a highly motivated Marketing Design intern for Summer 2016. The person selected will spend a minimum of eight weeks during the summer working closely with our State Office located in Charleston, WV. Interns will work approx. 15 hours per week and be responsible for:

- Assisting in the design and development of layouts for marketing materials
- Enhancing social media campaigns and presence
- Video editing and production

This internship is a great educational opportunity for a student looking for hands-on design experience. Interns will have the opportunity to use their natural creativity to develop quality informational and promotional materials. In addition, the internship provides an opportunity to learn about non-profit design and marketing.

Eligibility

Eligible students must be:

A rising sophomore, junior, or senior currently enrolled at university and majoring preferably in one of the following fields:

- Graphic design
- Marketing
- Technology Development (or similar)
- Other Visual Arts Fields

Qualifications

- Excellent technical/computer skills
- Competency with Major Social Media Sites
- Strong Written Skills
- Strong attention to detail
- Experience with major computer programs (Microsoft Office, Adobe Creative Suite, etc.)

Compensation

While the intern will be considered a volunteer, interns will receive a stipend based upon weeks worked to cover expenses (travel, food, etc.).

Internship Application

Interested applicants should send their resume with at least one example of their design work to Katie Pack at kpack@gabrielwv.org.

For more information about the organization, please visit www.gabrielwv.org. For questions regarding this program, please e-mail Katie at the address listed above.
The Gabriel Project of West Virginia is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that provides assistance to needy pregnant women and families with children two years of age and younger. The Project currently operates around the state, with three chapter offices serving 27 counties.

The Project is currently seeking a highly motivated Client Services intern for Summer 2016. The person selected will spend a minimum of eight weeks during the summer working closely with our Metro Valley Chapter Coordinator in Charleston, WV. Internship responsibilities include:

- Providing client services
- Organizing fundraising events
- Assisting client coordinator in establishing and monitoring local service sites

This internship is a great educational opportunity for a student looking for valuable face-to-face interaction and a chance to work hands-on with people in need. In addition, the internship provides an opportunity to learn about daily management of non-profit organizations.

Eligibility

Eligible students must be:

A rising sophomore, junior, or senior in a four-year university majoring preferably in one of the following fields:

- Social Work
- Psychology
- Sociology
- Public Health
- Communications

Qualifications

- Proficiency in Microsoft Office
- Strong Interpersonal Skills and Ability to Work Well with Others
- Dedicated interest in non-profit or social services work

Compensation

While the intern will be considered a volunteer, interns will receive a stipend based upon weeks worked to cover expenses (travel, food, etc.).

Internship Application

Interested applicants should send their resume with at least one reference to Katie Pack at kpack@gabrielwv.org.

For more information about the organization, please visit www.gabrielwv.org. For questions regarding this program, please e-mail Katie at the address listed above.